“ Our condolences to the family of this wonderful woman. She gave of herself to so many people in her long life. The Saturday before she died, she told my sisters and myself that "she always loved us and would never forget us" !! How little did she know that it is all of us who will never forget her. We loved her so much !!

“ *Margaret and I extend our deepest sympathy on the passing of Mary Louise Charles. We enjoyed her friendship over the years. She was a legend even in her own time, an institution and one who was highly regarded and respected by all who knew her. May God bless you and Mary Charles forever.
