“ To Glenn and the Ruth Clues family. My deepest sympathies are with you. I first met Aunt Ruth within my younger years. She left a very impressionable mark upon my family and me. She spoke her mind... Very stern with her words, but had a heart of gold. She showed genuine concern for me and my family. Her arms were as big as her heart. She comforted those who were in need. She was and still is a beautiful lady. Aunt Ruth, you will be missed, but never forgotten. Glenn, stay strong. Your mom sure was. All my love and heartfelt sympathies.

“ To Glenn and the family of Ruth Clues... better known as Sister to those who were closest to her. I met Aunt Ruth in my younger years. She left an impressionable mark on me and my family. She spoke her mind, but always had a gentle spirit. Her hands and her heart were always opened to those in need. We spoke many times throughout the years. She kept in touch with my family and me. Her concerns were deeply touched with love. I and family will miss you dearly.

Glenn stay strong. She certainly was. All my prayers, love and heartfelt sympathies are with you and family.

“ Glenn, Priscilla, Victoria, Quen, Beau, godchild-Duncan, extended family, friends, OGHS staff colleagues: from the stories I heard over the years, she had great culinary skills that she continued to exercise beyond retirement. She is known for that great gift! May God enfold you to soothe your hearts and give you peace as you accept this transition.
