“ To the family of Mrs. Lastrapes, it was with great sadness to hear of Ms. Nell's passing. The Lastrapes were neighbors to my grandmother. We have great memories of spending summers at my grandmother and getting to know them. She would come every year and help with the Boucherie. Our prayers are with you all as you learn to deal with her loss. Just remember to cling to your Faith, Family and Friends to help you get through this difficult time.

“ Aunt Nell, you were more than an aunt to me. You taught me how to comb my thick brown-reddish hair without bringing tears to my eyes. You loved unconditionally like Jesus. Your food was heavenly. Ever visit, you would have a meal ready to share that literally melted in your mouth. Your smile and laugh would wipe away any sadness and bring instant joy.

I miss you with all my heart. It's now time for you to rest. Thank you for having such an impact on my life and my family. I'm the man I am today because of you. 🙏😭❤️

“ Aunt Nell had such a sweet spirit. She embraced me when others didn't and that support is forever instilled in my heart and mind. She seemed to always be in laughter. Aunt Nell was reliable, responsible and a wonderful cook. She and everything about her was impeccable; her dress, her appearance and her home. You will definitely be missed Aunt Nell until we meet again.
