“ She was Miss Mary to me, a caring friend and neighbor, who I will miss greatly. Our neighborhood is like family and we have lost a family member, we are all still in shock... Galveston, to me, will never be the same without Miss Mary walking down the street and sitting on my steps and us talking for hours..... We have truly lost a good, good friend. We love you and know you are in a better place....

“ I am so sorry to hear that Mary is no longer with us. Though we were miles apart, I looked forward to receiving her card every Christmas, and we always made that January phone call. I enjoyed catching up on old times at our 2011 class reunion. Mary is resting with our loving God now, but I will always remember her.
