“ To be absent with the body is to be present with the Lord. You are now reunited with many love ones and I can just imagine the welcome that you received. We were not prepared not ready for you to leave your heavenly home but God has the final say. Yes, you are missed and will be missed but with the strength and prayers of God all will be well. To the family but most, Shala, you always spoke of how life would be difficult without your mom. Please grieve for a while and know there will be no more suffering for her. GOD had mercy on her and took her home. Being strong will not come easy but you are stronger than you know. Your angel will always be there in spirit. Love you.
