Obituary for Michael L. Landry

Michael L. Landry, age 77, of Opelousas, Louisiana, entered into eternal rest on Monday, August 11, 2025. He was born on August 14, 1947, and lived a life full of laughter, music, service, faith, and unforgettable moments.

Known affectionately as “Mike,” he had a unique gift for bringing joy to everyone around him. Whether singing a favorite song, telling a joke, or enjoying a quiet moment with a cigarette, Mike’s warmth, charm, and humor left a lasting impression on all who knew him.

Mike honorably served his country as a United States Airman, enlisting on May 6, 1969, and being honorably discharged on January 8, 1973. His dedication to service reflected his strong character and commitment to others. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, and his dear friend George Clay. Recently, Mike joined St. Paul Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Willie Maynard Jr., where he grew in faith and fellowship. He is survived by his devoted caregivers, Mary Washington and Marvin Dale Washington, who was also his best friend, along with many friends who will forever cherish his memory.

A celebration of Mike’s life will be held on August 21, 2025 at 10 AM at Wille Maynard, Jr. Fellowship Hall. Family, friends, and loved ones are invited to gather in remembrance to share stories, laughter, music, and honor his legacy.

Though his voice is now silent, his song and laughter will echo in our hearts forever.
