“ My sincerest condolences to the family. Of all the things that afflict us as humans, the pain of losing a loved one in death is truly indescribable. It is especially tragic when they are so young. May the "God of all comfort" grant you strength and peace during this most difficult time (2 Co 1:3, 4).

“ Miesha was my classmate, we were in the same kindergarten class at North Elementary, junior high, and we graduated high school together. When I heard the news it broke my heart. She was always smiling and had a loving personality that would light up a room. As for her family my prayers are with you all through this time of bereavement. God bless you all.

“ My condolences, we graduated class 2011 and it was sad hearing the news. I'm praying for the strength of her family and friends; she was close friends that I'm friends with. To the family, just believe that when the cards, condolences, and visits fade, Jesus will be there to wipe your tears, hold you, and will always be there. God Bless.
