“ Mill, I could write a book about the conversations, fun times, and adventures that we have been through and it still wouldn't make saying goodbye any easier. You've always been the realist person that I've ever met and I appreciate you for being that way with me. No one knows what the afterlife is like but I'd like to believe that you, Kevin, and Aunt Tatsy are giving St. Peter a run for his money. I try not to cry like you asked but it's hard knowing I won't be getting one of your calls anymore. And for Uncle Amos...you went above and beyond where Mill was concerned and we love and appreciate you. We will always be here for you! Rest easy Mill! You endured like a soldier!

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to all of the Thierry Family and husband of Mildred, Amos Green. I just wanted to let all of you know that Mill meant the world to me and my children and she was more than just a babysitter and friend to me. She was a second mom to my children and like an older sister and confidant to me ! We shared 32 great years of friendship with lots of ups and downs, but she was always there with open ears, open arms, a big heart and lots of advice. We will always love her and miss her greatly. My thoughts, prayers and love is with all of you,

Lynn...you, Pam, and Herbert John are as much our family as you were to Mill. Thank you for being there and for all that you have done. We'll pray for each other that our memories of her will keep our hearts full! -

“ There will never be a time that I won't think of you when sitting outside with MawMaw Sherline and Uncle Robert. I will really miss those long fusses and laughs. I was only able to tell you that I love you once and boy do I regret not saying it more now that you are gone. But this is a lesson learned about your loved ones. Regardless to how strong you were on the outside, we never can judge a book by its cover. I love you, I miss you, and I will NEVER forget you.
