“ I loved seeing her sweet little face light up when I'd come into her room to bring her to the beauty Salon. We enjoyed each other's company while I did her hair. She loved her children so much as she told me often. My condolences are with you. I will miss her so much.

Aunt Mildred the most wonderful Auntie a person could ask for. She ALWAYS welcomed us when we would travel from Texas to Louisiana. She was such a loving Auntie and will always have a special place in my ❤️ . Auntie its time to take your rest. I know God reached out and welcomed you into the pearly gates. Oh what a day it was when our family realized you gained your wings. I LOVE you and will always keep our memories close to my heart. Tell Momma, Daddy, and Tina hello for me. I now have another guardian ANGEL on my side. To my Cousins Jimmy, Carla and John, my Prayers are with you as you guys lay Aunt Mildred to eternal rest.
