“ I just found out that my true friend had passed away. I met miller at ohs when he he was one of the first black students to come before integration I and other athletes embraced him. I was blessed to be raised in a home where you respect everyone regardless of your color. It did not take very long for me to respect and love miller a great track man who was humble both of us loved the sport and we stayed in touch with each other I learned so much from miller courage humllity and the will to never give in thank you mller for being my brother. I know I will see you in heaven I love you Charlie mahfouz

“ This man was a tremendous athlete and I used to marvel as I watched him when I was younger. He was also thrust into a very difficult time during the initial days of integration in Opelousas yet it did not deter his determination and his spirit.
We have lost a great man and I send word of comfort to his family at his passting.
May God richly bless you all during this difficult time.

“ I graduated from OHS back in '68. I remember when Miller first arrived in school that he had a genuinely sweet spirit. Given all the pressures of those times, I never saw him act any way but friendly and kindly. I have fond memories of him and great respect as well. May God bless your whole family in this touch time.
