“ I remember what a strong and powerful man your Father was .In 1978, when i met you i went home and told my Mom how glad i was to have become friends with you. You were always so kind. My Mom said, that is Mitch Ledets daughter, he is a smart man and very good looking.

I will never forget that.My mom was a stay at home mom but was up on all politics because she read every line of the Times Picayunne. I am hoping to come up for the service. I go to Lafayette often. My son Frankie is serving his snowballs at the Plaisance Zydeco festival Saturday. Trying to make arrangements to come up early to see you for the service.

I am sorry for your loss and i am with you in spirit. Roxie Hebert Bruno

“ My Uncle Mitchel has always been a good Uncle, but after my father passed away, he told me that I was his son now and that meant the world to me. We tried to spend as much time together as we could. He would come to the house, I would cook, and we would catch up on all of the family. I loved his love of family and friends. There was nothing over God and family. He will be missed greatly. Love you Unc. Gerard
