“ It's Hard to know just what to say at a time like this but here goes, The body fades and withers away like a flower, but the love lives on. The love that you hold for your love one still glows and although he is gone, the love that he had for you also lives on in you and everyone who's life he touched. Be strong in your Faith My Cousin and he will sustain you (God). Hold on to the memories and cleave to your Family. Love you and I will be praying for you and your Family.
