“ I never thought that I would be writing a message on your memory page Keshia. We had so much wonderful memories together. My boys always called you Aunt Keshia and we never corrected them all you would do is laugh and say aww boy. You introduced them to foods I would dare not even try to cook and they Love you for that. Aunt Patrica and Uncle Mickey I want to thank you for sharing her with us. I will forever carry her smile, laugh and her cooking skills with me. I will be there for your young adult kids and make sure to do with them as you would. I am glad that we shared our marriage experiences with each and our grandkids stories. “ Keisha had such an infectious smile and spirit that was undeniable! Keisha is the ONLY person who gave me a nickname as an adult... she nicknamed me MACELL... short from my name Michelle. I loved how her smile would make her Chinese eyes disappear right before my eyes! Most importantly, I will treasure how she loved my daughter and my grandson as her very own... She will forever be Yaya to us! Love you and miss you dearly!
