“ Nalva was my great uncle! I remember my mom always talking about how they went to school together and even lived with his family for a while! I remember uncle Nal, as we affectionately called him, visiting my mother every week and after her passing he began visiting my dad in the nursing home on a regular basis! He always had a smile and a kind heart! Uncle Nal you will always be remembered! I know my mother is welcoming you with open arms!

“ We remember growing up with Nalva, side by side! He was more than just an uncle to me and my siblings! We always seem to find each other and share laughs at social gatherings and family events! We will always remember you and keep your name lifted in prayer! Rest in peace dear uncle! With saddened hearts, Velma Rubin, daughter and John Sonnier.
