“ I met Nina right before our grandson, Christian, was born to Joy and Jamie in December of 2010. She was so easy to talk with and it felt as if we had known one another for years! In our conversations that day, we laughed and we cried. Together, we shared being the proud grandmothers of Christian and Brielle. Nina was so very gracious, loving and generous. I knew her probably less than anyone - yet I cannot believe that she is gone. She is Christian and Brielle's "Girly!" Nina! I will keep a picture of you with our grandchildren in my home always. I pray to God that you are happy now and that you will look in on us sometimes. God bless and keep you always!

“ After reading about your recent loss, I would like to send my deepest condolences to the Young family. I am also moved to write you a message of comfort and hope. God has made the loving provision for a resurrection, so that you can see Ms. Young again. You can read about this hope that Jesus talked about at John Chapter 5:28-29 in your Holy Bible.

“God never promised an easy life. He said that we will have suffering and heartaches, but He also promised that He will be with us, to comfort us and reunite us on the other side.”
