“ I was deeply saddend, but yet relieved that my beloved aunt (who I have known all my life) had gone to be with the Lord. A Golden Girl Gone Home. We will miss her chipper ways, her decorations that she called "My Christmas", her stuffed animal collection, her little home in Palmetto, her sassy ways (back in the day), her love, her style, her greatness, and her reverance for GOD. It's not sad when someone who's lived such a full life and added to the lives of so many, transition from this earthly home to her new heavenly home. Glory, Glory, Hallelujah, since I've Laid My Burdens Down. Also, I give thanks and praise for my Aunt Ruby for taking so much of her personal time with our beloved Aunt. With all my love, Ike Jr.
