“ She is in God's presence now where there is no pain, but only joy and happiness. We all have great memories of Orean and family. She and Lawrence took me under their wings-of-care when I was just a little girl. Rena, Lawrence Jr., Matthew, Martin and Malcolm were just like siblings to me. Orean, I thank God for letting me be a part of your life.

“ Ms. Orean was such a beautiful person with an everlasting smile. A wonderful friend to my mother, an aunt to each of us. Words of wisdom was always spoken from her heart. She was a wonderful neighbor, beautiful children that didn't mind sharing their mother. May God grant each of you peace in the midst of your aching hearts. Remember that God is your only comforter. I adore the closeness of each of you. Don't let anything come in between your relationship. God bless.
