“ I'm at lost for words my dear cousin. I remember babysitting you and calling you the crying box, I told you about that and we laughed. I was proud to know that you grew up to be a beautiful woman inside and out. I thank God that we were able to catch up and talk more once you moved to Houston. We discussed meeting up several times but our busy schedule kept us from doing so. We always said okay next time but I never thought there wouldn't be a next time. I will miss your loving smile, you loving on your kids and husband showing up in my news feed. As long as I saw you in my news feed I knew all was well. Words can't express how I feel but know you was loved and will be missed and I was glad that I told you that each time we communicated. To all of the family, you're in my prayers.

*RIH my Beautiful Cousin,
Love you, Amanda*
