“ My most fondest memory of Uncle Wilbert would be when we had to sing together for my uncles funeral.. We had NEVER sung together before, I was a nervous wreck but Uncle Wilbert just looked at me with the most confident look and said don't worry you have a beautiful voice just let go and let God use you.. That's just what I did.. We received so many compliments, and ever since then I called him my singing buddy.. He is now singing in Heaven.. I love and miss you so much Uncle Wilbert.. I will continue to use my gift as I know you'd want me to..
