“ Losing a friend of seventy years is a sorrow I can hardly put into words. Even though we didn't get to see each other often, our bond never faded - it lived fondly and faithfully in my heart. I am so glad we had the chance to visit earlier this year,it feels like a final blessing, a gentle reminder of all the love and laughter we shared. At 82 I realize how rare a friendship like ours was, I will cherish it always. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ I worked in the apartment where Ms Pearl lived. She was always happy and smiling when I saw her. She often visited my client, often bringing him a lunch or each of us a piece of cake. One day I brought her a piece of cake I had baked and it really lit up her life. Ms Pearl, I will miss my hugs from you, but I know you are in a much BETTER PLACE. Antoinette Hebert
