“ Words cannot express how sorry I am that my friend Peggy is going home. I will not say sorry for your lost because we know where she is, she is with God. I will miss her greatly because she was always nice to me. Someone ask me today was she mean, I replied no she was just firm when it came to her job, & I love that about her. She was a sweet Woman. God Bless you all.

“ To the family of Peggy, my deepest sympathy is with you all at the time of your loss. I remember that smile from way back when, and just to know that she's smiling in the arms of Jesus. Gives us the assurance that we need to make it in. Blessing upon you all this day!
