“ My heart was saddened when I learned of the death of Randell. I met Randell a few years ago through my pastor and he made quite the impression. He wore an infectious smile, possessed a good spirit and was very polite and mannerable, all while executing his craft as a carpenter. He always expressed love for his family and shared funny moments about himself and his twin.

May his family take comfort in God's peace and love for their love during this difficult time of bereavement.
