“ Regal was like my big brother, we saw each other everyday once I started working at the store on the south. He would come in everyday just to get his hug! I felt protected just knowing he was around knowing we grew up together! I'm saddened about his lost, but he left so many great memories with me before he left. Ima miss you my brother. The family has my deepest sympathy. Love you all.

“ Regal will be sadly missed. My fondest memories are of him at my childhood home in Washington, LA. We had some awesome times. Summers were the best! Perhaps, even at Washington Elementary in the back of the classroom is where he taught me beats and how to freestyle. (I was never as good as him though) The brickhouse on a Saturday night for a teen dance was your spot. I'll never forget your dance moves as you grooved to the song "South Side". He was always my protector! Regal considered himself my BIG BROTHER and he definitely played that role. I hope I have made him proud! You are free now. You have no worries and no pains. Life's struggles are no more. Although I am sad that you have gone on; I have peace in knowing you are with the BEST. Enjoy your rest! I will love you forever.

Respectfully Submitted,
