“ My heart goes out to every member of Richard's family. It is difficult to find the words to express the tears of loss. I first remember Richard when he was in the third grade at Lawtell. Beautiful eyes, quiet observer, quick smile, and always ready to run and play with his siblings. Now I see his Dad's face with kind eyes and I suspect, a similar big heart and quick wit, easy smile and determination to provide for family. Despite the difficulty of saying Godspeed at this season, I know that he will always be remembered as Christmas presence by family and friends, even as he is reunited with his parents and siblings in an even greater Presence and Peace. My love to you all. Your old friend, Jan Doherty in Spokane WA.

“ Beloved Family Members:

Please be assured of my thoughts and prayers for each of you during this very difficult time.

Two short reflections/comments:

-"Eye has not seen, ear has not heard...what God has prepared for those who love him".

I Cor. 2:9

-In light of the above (one of my favorite quotes), I am picturing/trying to picture, a wonder-filled celebration and welcoming for Richard which is beyond our comprehension!

May Christ be your peace and consolation.

*Wishing you Jesus,
