“ I don't know your family personally, but I would like to extend my deepest condolences to the Gloston family for the loss of your dear loved one. May your treasured memories and the drawing ever closer to God through prayer begin to help bring you the comfort you need during these difficult days of sorrow. Please read: (2Cor1:3,4)(Isa41:10-13 & 25:8)(Rev21:4)(Acts24:15)

“ Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel for you. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at Ezekiel 18:22 “for I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord .” As you can see, He does not like death anymore than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why He has given us the hope of everlasting life! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It is not easy to lose someone we love in death. I have found that by turning to the bible we can find comfort. Ecclesiastes 9:11 "time and unexpected events overtake them all." God gives a wonderful promise in Revelation 21:1-5> He says I will make the earth like new and will remove all suffering, mourning and death.
