“ "Hello Sisters, just heard about your mother's Homegoing. Mrs. Rita was always a picture of beauty and class. I remember all of you as a wonderful reflection of that. I was Stanley's classmate and friend for so many great years. I pray that God's peace that passes all understanding will be yours and your entire family; and all the beautiful memories she has sown in your lives will bring comfort, strength and refresh you as press ahead.

Our condolences to the Gallow Family. Cousin Rita always welcomed us, shared family stories and precious memories. We will miss her deeply but take comfort in knowing she is now welcomed into Heaven and I can only think there's a great reunion with Cousin Zoe and all of the loved ones who have gone on before. Praying for your continued peace and strength in the Lord, Morris and Cheiron Gaspard

“ A long full and meaningful life is never enough for loved ones left behind. But we know that Heaven is a better place. free from pain and suffering. You were blessed with a loving family, and they are missing their rock, their angel. May your reunion with Uncle Julian, Stanley, and the rest of your family in heaven be a happy one. We don't understand God's timing, but we know He promises eternal life. We will always remember your genuine and loving smile when we visited, the times on the farm, and the get-togethers for a butcher. Families today will never know the joy or freedom of true country life, but we know you shared many loving memories with all who knew you. Rest in peace with the angels.

Your nieces: Cecilia, Elsie, Marilene, Hilda, Veronica, and your nephew Patrick Gallow
