“ Rollo was indeed a character....never a dull moment when he was around. He made you laugh even when you really didn't want to. It's always especially hard for me when someone I've known just about all my days passes away, but we know that God has all the answers. To the family, keep your heads to the sky and know that he's in a much better place. To my dear friend Rollo, rest well until we all meet again.
