“ My husband and I would like to express our sincere condolences to the family and friends of your beloved Rita. We wanted to share with you a wonderful hope of the resurrection, found in John 5:28,29. We can only imagine the tears of joy when we are reunited with our dear loved ones. Until that special time, draw comfort in the many experiences and memories you all shared together, cherish them in your hearts always. Our sympathy to all of you, take care of each other and each other.

“ *To the family of Ruth Charles. I don't remember what actually sparkle our friendship. But I do know our friendship and love for each other was genuine. Ruth was very special and I thank God I was given a chance to become apart of her life and she apart of minds. I know Ruth you are in a better place, with all the people you love and who loves you. You will be miss.

“ To the family, weep not in sorry but in joy for Ruth was a great soldier in love and life. Know that her love and understanding has given you the strength to passlove to those you meet. Her reward was made along time ago and now she can share at the table with those who have gone on before her. With love from the family of Rebecca Ann Stewart Richard (sons- Tojeaux and Nia John)
