“ *Our summers will not be the same.
I thank God, for our time together, for our laughs, while the sun was shining, warm and gentle, settling upon the winds' breeze that shimmered amongst the green leaves of that old, stately, grand, pecan tree.
So many stories to tell of days gone by,
that breeze,
landing softly on our cheeks, everytime we had to say, "Goodbye."

I know you don't know me. But I been trying to find my dad, Samuel Jackson the 3rd for years. I ran across this obituary on google. My name is Keshia Jackson from Victoria Tx. If someone could get in contact with me about my dad I would greatly appreciate it. I would love to meet my other family.
