Another year is about to pass. My friend you are missed. How Many times were you there for me during my long days offshore drilling for oil in the Gulf of Mexico. You would call me in my office and make my days so much brighter. We were so far apart in distance, but it felt as if we were in the same room. You are a God sent and God call you home we he felt is was time. Take your rest. I will see you one day at the end of the rainbow.

“ My heart is heavy now. Shannon was my friend for many years. To the family & love ones, she will be missed, but she will never be forgotten. I will always remember our last talk on the phone. Even though we had not scene each other for years. We always keep in touch. You helped me. You were there for me when my mom passed away with words of wisdom. When I found out God had called you home. I was 600 miles away drilling for oil in Gulf of Mexico. I feel, I wasn't there for you. I am so sorry. If I could have just made you laugh one more time. Enclosing, God knows what is best. Your alright now Shannon. No more crying, No more weeping, no more pain. When it is Gods' time to call and our time answer. I'll see you again. We will walk around heaven all day.

“ Family, Cousins of Valmore's. We of the Vacaville California Valmore's send our prayers to your entire family. Shannon and I (Andrea Valmore) communicated in June for the first time and had hoped to talk at a later time. Our hearts are sad that could not happen. Our hearts know there are Valmore Angels...
