“ I remember the day we (Sheena, Shayla, and myself) accepted God into our hearts before our families at Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church. I remember her asking to hold my son (Daniel) every Sunday. I remember learning about God's love and singing in the choir too.

Sheena was like a sister to me while growing up in Opelousas. My heart hurt when I got word of her homegoing because it is so close to me.

She is a reminder to me how precious life is. My condolences to Mrs. Shelia and all of your family at this time of lost. Love Danielle

“ To the loved ones of Sheena Thomas Comeaux I express my deepest sympathy. I was in Elementary School with Sheena from K-5 and she was an angel on Earth so I know she's an angel in Heaven. Here on earth we miss Sheena but she is in a much better place than we are. I pray that you all have strength during your time of mourning and remember, we will see her again in total bliss and happiness.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of her family, I am one of Sheena's co-workers at AT&T. She will be truly missed at the call center with her smile that could make anyone smile when they are having a bad day. Sheena was a dear friend to all her knew her and most of all she always talked about her children. To the family, just be strong for her kids sake and remember God does not give you more than you can handle. Be Blessed In Jesus Name

“ I worked with Sheena at AT&T where we became friends. I remember when she found out she was pregnant with her last baby. she told me girl here I thought I was getting fine and I find out I'm pregnant!. We laughed about it. She always kept her prayer book on her desk and read it periodically throughtout the day. Sheena was an exceptional young woman who loved the Lord who will always be remembered. Your family will always be in my prayers

“ I dont know sheena's family but i worked with Sheena at AT&T. I called her "my little friend" because she was just like one of my kids, she had such a beautiful smile and her face had such a beautiful glow. she smiled all of the time she was such a happy person and that is the way i will forever remember her.I was heartbroken when i heard she was ill and even more when i heard she had passed, I felt as though i had lost "one of my little children".Sheena, i miss you and will hold you forever in my heart.To her family and friends, my heartfelt condolences go out to all of you. I am so sorry that she was taken away for all of us. But one thing i can honestly say, I know she is up in heaven, smiling that beautiful smile of hers, and i am thankful that she is not suffering with this disease any longer, i could not bear to think of that disease taking her beautiful smile away from her.I thank God that he brought her in my life for me to know her and be a part of her AT&T circle of friends and i will remember her always. God Bless!

“ God bless you during this time of bereavement and may the Lord give you strength to endure this loss. Just remember that weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 To every thing there is a season, a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal, a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance. So, mourn if you have to but remember the Lord is your strength and trust in Him to heal the wounds and to fix the heartache. Sheena is in a much better place, yet she will be dearly missed. Gone from our sight but never forgotten in our hearts.

“ I remember Sheena from birth to childhood, as a teenager, getting married, having children of her own. She was always very kind and very respectful, Shelia you raised a beautiful loving daughter you were always there for her be proud of her and know that she is in God's hands now and someday you will see her again.
