“ My girl and I worked at Sears in Lafayette, Louisiana. She was my very good friend. Maybe even best at back then. During my move to Houston we remain in contact, but lost each other over the years. Think we just took for granted if we really needed to find one another we could. I had heard of the news of her illness a while back and actually spoke with her since. I had know idea she was this ill. Wished I'd known she was right here in Houston. God how I wish I'd seen her before she passed. We were like brother & sister. My prayers to all her love ones. My God keep you in his arms and give you peace. Good-Bye old friend until we meet again. I love You...
