“ To Kenneth and Carmen,
Please know that I share in the loss of your father as he was indeed a devoted husband and a proud father; someone who remained a good friend to the end. I will miss his presence and how he made me laugh about the times when he and I worked together at Olinde's.
He has now reunited with your mother which is where he really wanted to be and I pray for your strength and courage in knowing that God's Love still remains with both of you.
You will forever be in my prayers.

“ Mr. Garrett you are surely going to be missed. I visited with you about (2) months ago and made your favorite sweet potato bread and that was the first time I had been to your house. I am so glad to have had the pleasure of knowing you. You were surely a father figure and had advice to give along with your jokes. Love you and may your soul rest in peace.
