“ I had the good fortune to live with Uncle Tim while I taught in Eunice. That began a unique relationship between us. Through the years, we enjoyed many conversations, discussing our faith, Nan, her garden and of course, classic cars. I will definitely miss those times of fellowship, however, I will not grieve as those without hope, for I know I will see him again in glory.

In Times Of Sorrow. May you see God's light on the path ahead. When the road you walk is dark. May you always hear, Even in your hour of sorrow, The gentle singing of the lark, When times are hard may hardness. Never turn your heart to stone. May you always remember When the shadows fall, You do not walk along. Love ❤️ Linda n Joseph Charles.

“ I have been quietly trying to process my emotions. I can't. This week I have been angry, I've felt sick, I've been exhausted, confused, tearful, lethargic. Mostly, I am feeling immense grief. That is the one word it all boils down to.

1. I wasn't expecting this. I'm not prepared. I've lost so many people in the last 2-4 years but for some, there were warnings that the end was near. Not this one.... not like this.

2. I am reminded of how many Giants I've had in my life. I'm so blessed. -Each with their own flaws, but able to leave heroic legacies. I hope that my life is a testimony to their legacy. I repeat the lessons that I've been taught and wish that their impact on me exponentially impacts the world through me.

3. Uncle Tim loved his family- especially his children. I hope they felt it, because I've been overwhelmed hearing him express his love for them.

4. The biggest impact my Uncle had on me: Tim Ledee was always willing to listen to my opinion, share his with me, and tell me when neither mattered. There's been so many conversations when I thought something was wrong or justice wasn't served or.. or.. or... and he's acknowledged my position. He's discussed his. Then he'd remind me that our opinions would not change the facts. My Uncle's death was senseless, unnecessary, and pointless. I'm sure he'd agree. But... that opinion doesn't change the facts.

5. There is much I want to say to and regarding the person that took Uncle Tim from his family and community. I may never utter those words outloud. There is nothing I can do. My opinion. My words. Futile against the fact...

6. If you've made it this far, please keep me, our family, and all those who were positively impacted by the life of the legend, Theme Ledee, lifted in your prayers.

“ Theme was a special person and had a big impact on many. My adult children remember him from Dare and when a child remembers you 20 years later, that shows he was a true mentor. He will be missed.

“ We were neighbors for 24 years. We all looked out for each other. He was a very kind loving and compassionate man. Never met a stranger and went above and beyond for our community and its children. Not a day will go by that you will not be missed. You made a difference in an overwhelming amount of people's lives. Your shoes will never be filled. We love you for eternity Mr. Tim. Rest easy now. You sure deserve the best.
