“Theresa, you were my very best friend on Delaware Ave way back when we were in kindergarten. I remember when we thought it was a good idea that you cut my hair for my first day in Mrs. Ginsburg’s class (see picture) look at those bangs lol. You were always so fearless. You introduced me to the best music as we grew. Blondie, The Rolling Stones, Cheap Trick. I miss those times and will keep you in my heart forever. Goodbye old friend. Until we meet again.

“ Theresa was like a second mom to me for a long time. I used to date her step son for 7 & a half years. From day one we clicked. She was like my cool punk rock mom lol. Most of the time I wanted to just go to her house and hangout instead of hanging out with my boyfriend lol. She was just so fun to be around & I could tell her anything without feeling judgement. There are too many fun and amazing memories I have with her to count, but one thing that really touched my heart was that after me & her stepson broke up she reached out to me to tell me that she still loves me & I'll always be her daughter no matter what. & she meant it. Because 5 years later we were still in regular contact & she was even supposed to come visit & meet my husband soon. It breaks my heart that I know it will never happen now. I miss her so much. She was one of my favorite people in the world. I'm so lucky to have known her. Rip Theresa I will miss you forever and always.

“ Hanging out with my husband, my sister, Brian & Theresa at their house having a blast just eating good food and talking. I'll never forget how awesome she was. What a great woman. And I could tell how much she loved Brian. -Mariam Williams
