“ My beautiful cousin, I just heard about your passing. All I can see is your smiling face because you always had a smile for me. A very sad day for me as I recall us growing up, running and playing as kids. The family visits with butchers, boudin, cracklings and card games our dads played where they used shucked corn for money... Lots of memories... Please hug my parin when you get to heaven.

“ Hello family, it Cousin Fay, and I so remember the mud-cake making during family visits. Angela and I got fussed at all the time, so I choose to smile, when I think of so mm any memories of my loving cousin. Rest in peace, until we met again. I love you.

As for the family she left behind, think of good times, she would want it just that way.
