“ To My Rideau Cousins:

It brings me to tears to hear that another cousin has died. I have fond memories of the times when we used to visit each other in our early years. Time has really brought about a change in our lives and the different directions we all have taken. Maybe we can all take a look back and reflect on those days. I thank God that my memory of times spent will remain intact.

*Your Cousin,
Cameron (aka Cam)*
