“ Guys I will always remember the fun times at the house on Narrow Street each Saturday morning watching Fat Albert and Soul Train. Picking pecans in the yard and eating your mom's pecan candy. Then when you guys moved to Bertheaud St. the house parties! The stories Alma and I had to come up with to explain why we were coming home after the street lights came on. There are so many fond memories to recall and I thank God that He allowed us to cross paths. Ms. Virginia was like a mother to me and so many others. She shall be missed dearly. My prayers and love are with you guys always.

“ I always knew this day would come but I didn't expect it will come this way. When God showed me what will come dismay I accept his will be done that day. No one wants their mother to leave this way or leave this earth in anyway. Mother God has spoken and asks for you today I took a deep breathe and said ok. my heart ponded all that day hope that God change his way but when the time had come for you to come home. God told me listen to the sound and I hear the worst sound it made. The sound of syringes headed your way. They did not make it in time to save your life but I know God want was their to give you a new life. I want cry for you because I know you are home spending time with your mother that your always deeply miss so much. Mother I Love with all of my heart no mater what I will never ever stop thinking about because this one thing that you left me with is Jesus the light of the world. I am not perfect but I will try to reach perfection with the help of Jesus. REST IN PEACE IT IS FINISH.

“ Wow, I awaken to the news and I thought: God doesn't make mistakes and he knew her flower had bloomed just right. He carried your mother safely to the arms of Jesus. I thank God for the times I got to fellowship with Mrs. Wilson and how awesome they were. Rest peacefully in the joy of the Lord!
