It was 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 19, 2013 at her home when Sister Vivian Hayes, in a calm and peaceful way, slipped out of time into eternity.

Sister Vivian Hayes was born February 17, 1927 in Opelousas, LA to the late Andrew and Clara Hayes. Her parents, eleven brothers, four sisters, and one daughter (Clara Mae Guidry), precedes her in death. Having been reared in a Christian home at an early age, she sought and accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Mohorn Baptist Church, under the leader of the late Reverend S.A. Crowder. Later she moved her membership to Mount Olive Baptist Church, where she faithfully served until her death. Sister Hayes served in various positions at her church. Our departed sister was indeed an ideal steward in the Master's vineyard. She served well doing what her hands focused to do. Sister Hayes attended elementary school and adult education classes in St. Landry Parish. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Brother Mack Guidry and one daughter was born to the couple.

Sister Hayes leaves to cherish sweet memories of a beautiful life: a loving and devoted family, one sister-in-law Velma Thibodeaux Hayes of Winnie, TX and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Visiting hours will be observed from 9:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. Saturday, August 24, 2013 at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Opelousas, LA.
