“ What a admirable man. I was lucky enough to be one of the many young men to learn from Mr. Scott. Just being in his home and around his family demanded respect for self and valuing hard work. I am glad that everyone is getting more rest and the physical suffering is over. I am even happier to know that brighter days lie ahead and that everyone will be reunited some day. My love goes out to your entire family.

“ Dad, it's hard to say goodbye but knowing that you're not suffering anymore eases my heart. I want to thank you again for being one of the few father figures in my life. You've taught me quite a few things that I will always carry with me. Lathan had the best pawpaw anyone could ask for. I thank the Lord that he allowed you and Lathan a chance to bond and have a grandfather/grandson relationship. I know you will watch over him and protect him as he becomes older. We will always miss you and will always keep you close to our hearts. I know you're resting peacefully now. Love you! (Best Father-n-Law in the world) :)

“ To Gail and all the kids, you have my deepest sympathy. Wilbert and I were so much alike in so many ways, and I will always love him. Though it crumbled my heart because he had to leave us, it was much more painful to see my brother suffer so. I am so thankful that God knew what was best for him... Gail, I am grateful to God that he placed you in Wilbert's life, because he really did deserve the happiness that you shared. May God Bless you, and I know in my heart that He will take care of all of you...Love you guys always....Theresa (Beesha)

“ As a good friend to Wilbert III , I heard many wonderful things about Mr. Scott and how strong , inspirational and wise he was. Though i never got to meet him i know he raised a great son who is a wonderful friend of 15 years. I also heard many wonderful things about Mrs. Scott who proved unconditional love while caring for her husband. An amazing woman she is. My thoughts and prayers go out to family and friends of Mr. Scott. May both he and his family find peace in thier hearts that he is no longer in pain. God bless Scott family.....
