“ So many childhood memories come to mind when I think of you...like those big family gatherings in the yard, everybody hanging out on the garry (in Aunt Mammie's voice) and you on the pit telling it like it is. I'll think of you every time I add a little jelly and beer to my BBQ sauce. Rest in Heaven Willie Will.

“ Durio family please accept my heartfelt condolences and deepest sympathy. I will definitely miss seeing Willie at church and clowning around with him at some of our family functions. I can only imagine the joy he is having being reunited with his loved ones and friends especially my brother Larry. Until we meet again fly high dancer.

“ My condolences to the Durio Family. Death of a loved one is never easy, however, God makes no mistakes. He only loans them to us for a little while and he leaves us precious memories to keep us smiling and to comfort us. Although Willie has passed on from this earthly realm he will not be forgotten. God Bless the Durio Family.
