“ Oh Daddy, we miss you so much already. Thanks for being the best grandfather and I will never forget the good times that we shared. I will always remember you and find ways to honor your name. Don't worry about Mom we got her and will make sure that she is taken care of. I love you so much daddy! I wish I could've had you longer but I imagine that one has to be tired to have lived almost 102 years. Rest peacefully

“ On behalf of the children of Mary Lou Veazie Johnson and Morris Johnson we extend our most deepest sympathy to Mrs. Irma and the entire Ross Street Durisseau crew. Mr. Willie children and Morris children grew up together. Lots of memories. Mr. Willie is a legend in time. Mr. Fiddler lived a long time. Look at the grand, great grand, and great great grands. What a blessing. Thank you Mr. Willie and family for allowing us to be a part of your lives. And thank you Mr. Willie for double trouble Ronald and Donald who got us kids in trouble back in the day. Rest in peace loved one. Rest in peace.
