My heart is full, considering I can't make it to the services, due a wedding I wished they could have attended. I love them both very much! They always made sure I knew they loved me very much and they always open their homes to my family for as long as I can remember. Keith and Sarah, I want you to know they loved you both very much and they always wanted the best for you, may God give you peace as you journey through life with your own personal angels guiding you.
