“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Yvette we were raised like sisters and loved each other as so. We didn't talk every day but knew each other was there. So much time i took for granted. I will forever remember last Christmas we spent at moms and this past Thanksgiving i spent at your house. It' s funny how i just had to call you once i got home just to say thanks again for that day not knowing that would have been our last conversation. I love you, kiss mama, aunt sis, uncle dwight, uncle glenn, pawpaw melvin, and aunt yule for me. Tell them all how much we love them. Rest in paradise and sleep easy knowing we all will watch over your children in your absence. Please ask GOD to watch over our family. This pill was hard to swallow.

“ Yvette was such a sweet person and I will miss her. My heart breaks for Kye, Karen, Angela and all of my cousins under my Aunt Annabelle's family tree. I know you'all always take care of one another and you will get through this. Know that I love you all and have all of you on my heart and mind. R.I.P. Yvette.

“ In my heart. In my deepest thoughts. I want to be selfish and say God shouldn't have. I want to ask why. I want to say he should have taken someone else. But I know our god makes no mistakes and she is in a far better place. I love you cousin and I will miss you. ...rest knowing that the you children are in good has and god needed you more.
